

Stronger Together

The Federation of
Chislet Church of England Primary and Hoath Primary Schools

Beyond Expected in Speaking and Listening

A more able child in spoken language can.....

- Ask questions frequently to extend their understanding and knowledge.
- Articulate, justify and develop their answer with passion and confidence.
- Respond with resilient determination to constructive feedback on their listening skills.
- Use ambitious, adventurous vocabulary appropriately in formal and informal situations.
- Offers their viewpoint sensitively, maturely and specifically in discussion situations as part of an appropriate dialogue with others.